

Title: DIRECTOR, CLINICAL SERVICES

OPO/Company: NEW YORK ORGAN DONOR NETWORK

Position Description: Exceptional opportunity for an experienced Nurse Administrator to join our Leadership Team. In collaboration with the VP for Operations and the Medical Director, helps to set and is responsible for implementing strategic direction of NYODN's clinical programs and activities. Responsibilities include oversight of the Clinical Department, which includes Clinical Managers, Organ Placement and Organ Procurement Coordinators. Maintains excellent relationships with Transplant Centers and troubleshoots operational and communication issues between Transplant Centers the OPO. Assists in the coordination and analysis of data and with research activities. Collaborates with other departments to maximize donor potential while maintaining the highest clinical and ethical standards and to advance public and industry awareness of donation and transplantation. Serves as staff to on all Medical Board committees, e.g. Medical Board, Kidney-Pancreas Committee, and Liver Consortium. This key position maintains twenty-four (24) hour call responsibility.

Qualifications: The successful candidate will possess 3-5 years of progressive Management experience in the Critical Care, Transplant or Organ Procurement arenas. Excellent interpersonal and organizational skills required. Candidates with Senior Nursing Administrative experience will be considered. Certification in specialty preferred; Masters Degree required. Must possess or be eligible for a NYS Nursing license.

Deadline for Submissions: Applications will be accepted until position is filled.

Contact: Resumes may be sent to New York Organ Donor Network, 460 W. 34th Street, 15th Floor, New York, NY 10001 or hrdept@nyodn.org or faxed to (646) 291-4664.

Other: NO TELEPHONE CALLS PLEASE.

EOE M/F/D/V